YOUR JOURNEY OF POSSIBILITIES

Introduction

Progress to university with NCC Education qualifications!

Originally established as an initiative by the British Government in 1966, NCC Education is a UK awarding body and global provider of education.

Working with some of the world's leading British academics and industry, the NCC Education qualification portfolio is continually expanding to align with the ever-growing needs of employers and higher education institutes alike.

NCC Education's Level 3 International Foundation Diploma for Higher Education Studies (L3IFDHES) is now recognised by over 100 universities, branch campuses, business schools and professional bodies for on-campus study in over 20 countries. Students are eligible to apply to Year 1 of undergraduate study in the UK, Australia, Canada, China, Cyprus, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Ireland, Japan, Malaysia, Mauritius, New Zealand, Singapore, Switzerland, UAE, USA, Uzbekistan and Vietnam (see pages 19-191).

Many NCC Education Level 3, 4 and 5 Diploma in Business and Level 3, 4 and 5 Diploma in Computing (with specialisms) students choose to follow NCC Education's world-class top-up degree pathways in Business, Computing or Cyber Security through our global network of Accredited Partner Centres. As an alternative to this, NCC Education is proud to offer a number of university progression and articulation options from these Diplomas, enabling students to apply to Year 1 of an undergraduate degree or with advanced standing/credit exemptions towards Years 2 or 3 (see pages 192-283).

There are also a range of options at postgraduate level for Pre-Master's in Business and Level 7 Diploma in Business Management graduates (see pages 284-302).

If you need more advice on progression to further study with your NCC Education qualification, please contact your local Accredited Partner Centre or Note: Many other universities accept NCC Education qualifications. This brochure only lists those who have issued NCC Education with a letter of recognition.

*Level 3 International Foundation Diploma for Higher Education Studies

NCC Education's Level 3 International Foundation Diploma for Higher Education Studies was very important as it taught me all the key basic skills in Communication, English and Maths.

At the same time I found it challenging as I learnt how to speak academically. My favourite subject was English for Academic purposes – this unit helped me improve my grammar and helped me to express myself when delivering speeches.

The L3IFDHES gave me an excellent foundation for my further studies in Accounting.

Why did I choose NCC Education? Firstly, I chose the NCC Education Level 3 International Foundation Diploma for Higher Education Studies because all the courses are taught in English.

Secondly, I live in a French-speaking country, so learning in English has helped me adopt a bilingual study approach and get ready to be marketable in the work place. The fact that the programme is an international diploma is the most important thing for me!

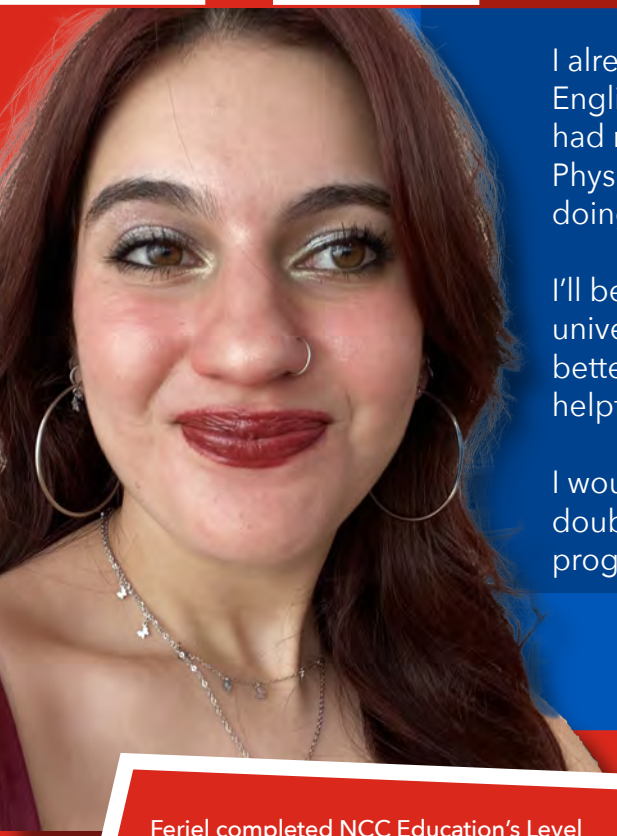
Feriel Allad



I already had a good level of English to start with, however I had never experienced studying Physics and Maths in English or doing assignments.

I'll be needing these skills in university so studying them and bettering my English was really helpful.

I would absolutely without a doubt recommend the L3IFDHES programme to other students.

Feriel completed NCC Education's Level 3 International Foundation Diploma for Higher Education Studies and has progressed to study BA (Hons) Architecture at Bath Spa University, UK.

The Business and Economics electives in the NCC Education L3IFDHES programme were very helpful for my university preparation. When I was interviewed by the university, they asked about my familiarity with business concepts like SWOT, PESTLE analysis etc. Since I had learned about these, I was able to answer their questions easily.

I am extremely proud to be a holder of the L3IFDHES qualification, and I genuinely have no regrets about choosing this programme!

Issa Bamouni

NCC Education's L3IFDHES helped me to improve my English language skills through being in an English-speaking environment. This helped me to be more flexible when speaking!

It also helped me to know how companies work in terms of accounting, finance and marketing.

Issa completed NCC Education's Level 3 International Foundation Diploma for Higher Education Studies. He has now progressed to the NCC Education Level 4 Diploma in Business.

Alina Marzook

L3IFDHES prepared me well for my university-level studies.

The assignments and exams were a good simulation of what students face in higher education and our lecturers brought a lot of industry experience to the classroom, making learning feel practical and relevant.

One of my favourite parts of the L3IFDHES was the focus on independent learning. I feel more self-reliant and prepared for my degree!

Thanks to NCC Education's L3IFDHES, I can apply a lot of what was covered in class about communicating and meeting people from different nations. Because of how many presentations we used to give, I believe that the L3IFDHES will also help me get ready for university.

I wholeheartedly recommend NCC's L3IFDHES programme!

The L3IFDHES was very well structured, laying out clear steps toward achieving my educational goals, which kept me focused.

I liked that we could choose to study a range of subjects – in my case Computing and Business - as this gave me a well-rounded perspective before I specialised in my degree.

Sahil Abbas Mehdi

I liked the fact that the studies within the L3IFDHES programme were all fundamental subjects that are necessary for everyone to know and learn.

The diploma taught me how to write articles and reports, how to attempt questions and how to carry out properly conducted research.

The L3IFDHES programme is well-rounded, offering not just academic learning but also helping develop critical thinking and problem-solving abilities.

The course developed my research, analytical, and academic writing skills, which are essential for university-level studies. The coursework was structured similarly to how universities operate, so I became familiar with academic expectations. It also taught me time management and independent study techniques, both of which are crucial for success at university.

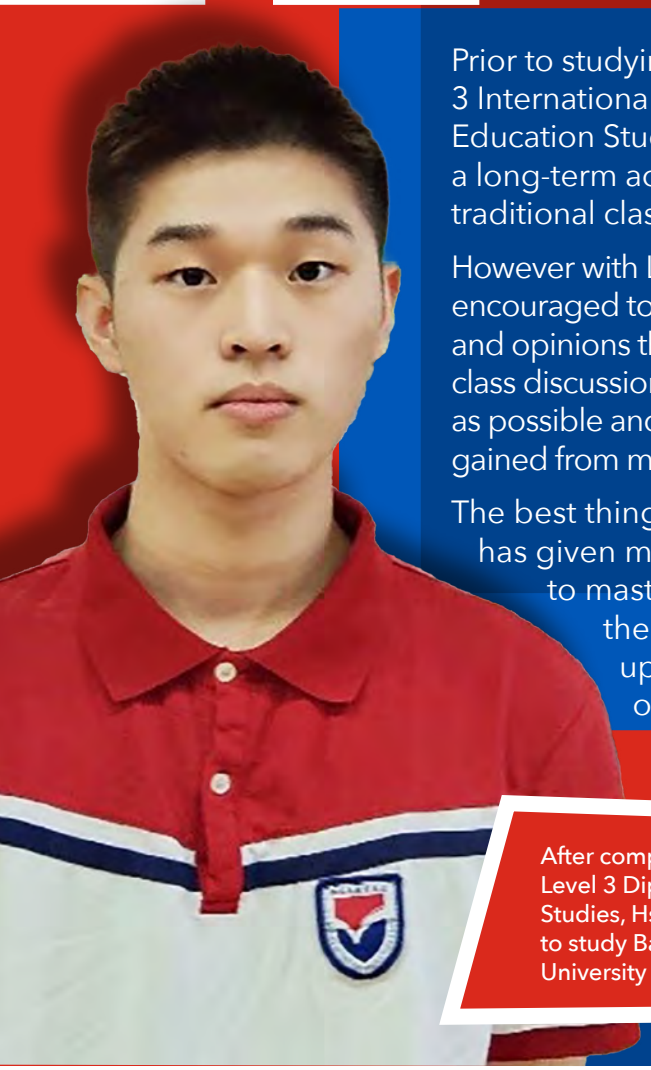
Hsinghao Wang



Prior to studying NCC Education's Level 3 International Diploma For Higher Education Studies (L3IFDHES) I had a long-term academic struggle with traditional classes.

However with L3IFDHES we were encouraged to develop our own thoughts and opinions through group work and class discussions. I got involved as much as possible and enjoyed the confidence I gained from my studies.

The best thing my L3IFDHES journey has given me is a new academic route to master my future. Completing the L3IFDHES has opened up so many academic opportunities for me.

After completing the NCC Education Level 3 Diploma for Higher Education Studies, Hsinghao Wang was accepted to study Bachelor of Commerce at The University of Queensland, Australia.

My main goal is to complete my higher education and start working full-time with recognised qualifications for my foundation and degree.

NCC Education had the exact course I was looking for, which is why I had no second thoughts about choosing the L3IFDHES for my foundation course.

I completed NCC Education for my foundation and have just started my degree provided by the University of Central Lancashire!

This has worked perfectly because of the similar material, case studies and learning methods.

Tenuli Kulatunga

Tenuli completed NCC Education's Level 3 International Foundation Diploma for Higher Education Studies. She has progressed to study BA (Hons) International Business from the University of Central Lancashire, UK at Universal College Lanka, Sri Lanka.

Yingdong Fan

I still remembered the first day of my 11th grade: I walked into my new classroom, followed by my new classmates. At that time I didn't know what my next chapter would be, not to mention that I would be receiving offers from 10 world-leading universities!

My L3IFDHES lecturers promoted critical discussions about real business industry issues and applied them to our class. The course gave me the opportunity to devote myself entirely to the business world and encouraged me to be selective about what I really want to become good at.

After completing the NCC Education Level 3 Diploma for Higher Education Studies, Yingdong Fan was accepted to study BSc (Hons) International Management at the University of Nottingham, UK.

A special quality about the L3IFDHES is that it includes units in Study Skills and English for Academic Purposes. These units feature elements which are not included in A-levels, but are invaluable throughout our student career.

Study Skills includes note-taking skills, academic essay writing, reading techniques and revision strategy, while English for Academic Purposes is a subject which has been most beneficial to me, by improving my academic writing skills. The quality of teaching is outstanding, and I would highly recommend anyone to consider L3IFDHES.

I truly appreciated the flexibility offered by NCC Education's programmes, enabling me to balance my studies with other commitments while still receiving a top-notch education. Additionally, the supportive learning environment fostered by both tutors and peers was invaluable.

The well-structured curriculum, relevance to current industry trends, and the emphasis on practical application make these diplomas a valuable stepping stone for aspiring business professionals.

Chenyang You

NCC Education's Level 4 Diploma in Business is one of the best things I've ever been a part of. The course helped me to develop new ideas to understand the real business world!

Nestled between the beautiful urban areas and the sea, our campus is surrounded by a breath-taking natural landscape. The location, the scenery and the surrounding area are the reasons why I chose to come to come here.

Chenyang completed NCC Education's Level 4 Diploma in Business. She progressed to study the Bachelor in Business Studies at Kaplan Singapore, awarded by University College Dublin.

What I enjoyed most about both my L4DB and L5DB is the depth of the topics covered and how they allowed me to develop my critical skills.

I particularly liked the research projects that enabled me to deepen my knowledge on various subjects; this enriched my learning experience and helped me see things from different perspectives.

Now that I have completed my degree, I plan to embark on a career as a flight attendant with Air Côte d'Ivoire. I am excited to pursue this dream that I have cherished since my childhood.

I appreciated the structure of the UCLan BCIS and the way it built on the knowledge I had gained in my previous studies with NCC Education. The modules were well-designed and relevant to the real world and the assignments helped me develop practical skills. I also enjoyed the opportunity to work on research projects that aligned with my interests in financial technology.

I would summarise my experience with NCC Education and UCLan as challenging, enriching and rewarding.
